GOVERNMENT'S POSITION ON SENTENCING

The United States of America submits its position on the defendant's sentencing. As a condition of the execution of co-defendant Richard Allen Patterson's plea agreement, ECF No. 99, and of the Court's acceptance of the co-defendant's guilty plea on May 2, 2018, ECF No. 98, the United States now recommends that the Court sentence the defendant to the following:

- Under Count One, a total active sentence of 18 months' imprisonment, consisting of 12 months in jail with three years of supervised release, including a condition that the defendant complete six months of home confinement, to be served concurrently with the sentence imposed under Count Eight; and
- Under Count Eight, a total active sentence of 18 months' imprisonment, consisting of 12 months in jail with three years of supervised release, including a condition that the defendant complete six months of home confinement, to be served concurrently with the sentence imposed under Count One.

The defendant agrees with this recommendation. Neither party has any objection to the PSR.

Respectfully submitted,

G. ZACHARY TERWILLIGER
